

GINGERCAT/CAVA BOOKS
Independent Publishers
The Barn Dippenhall Farnham
GU10 5ED
Tel: 01252 711853

PRESS RELEASE

RELEASE DATE: For immediate release

 STARTS ***

The Curtis Museum in Alton is hosting an evening at The Allen Gallery for local author, Penny Ingham, who will be talking about her debut historical novel: The King's Daughter. This is a powerful and dramatic story about Elflaede, daughter of King Alfred the Great.

DATE: Wednesday, 22 September 2010

TIME: 7.30pm

Anyone wishing to attend should contact the Museum/Allen Gallery:

TEL: 01420 82802

The King's Daughter was launched at Waterstone's, Alton, in March 2010 and Penny has since embarked on a tour of book signings at book stores throughout Surrey, Hampshire and Berkshire.

The book was an Editor's choice in the Historical Novel Society Magazine in their May 2010 issue.

Penny lives in Long Sutton in Hampshire. She is a member of the Basingstoke Archaeological and Historical Society and she has a degree in Classics from Hull University. For more information about Penny, she has a website: www.pennyingham.co.uk

 ENDS ***

If you have any questions about this Press Release please contact the publishers on: 07973 138003 or val@gingercatbooks.co.uk and we will be pleased to help.